Welcome to EUT!

Welcome to EUT!

♣ The Donautal fellowship of Unitarier - Religionsgemeinschaft freien Glaubens (URFG) and the European Unitarian Universalists (EUU) invite Unitarians, Unitarian Universalists, Free Religious and Humanists from all over Europe and beyond to attend the EUT. This pan-European assembly in the beautiful Danube twin cities Ulm/Neu-Ulm, Germany, will be the first of its kind, and we hope it will be stimulating, fulfilling and enjoyable for those lucky enough to attend. We also envision it as paving the way for possible future assemblies.

Ulm also has a certain meaning for Unitarians. In 1879, Albert Einstein was born in Ulm. He once said: "If we succeed in renewing the spirit of the American Constitution after the confusions of our day, it will be in considerable measure to the credit of the courageous efforts of the Unitarians ...". It is well-known that the U.S. constitution has Unitarian roots as well.

URFG and EUU will hold their respective business meetings as part of the assembly, and Unitarian groups in Europe are invited to hold their own meetings as part of this event. Workshops and other activities are also very welcome.

See you in Ulm/Neu-Ulm!

The EUT Organizing Committee

Highlights

♣ There are many reasons to come to Ulm/Neu-Ulm for the EUT. Here are just a few.

Theme

The theme: Faith without borders? Our theme could not be more timely. Just think of the refugee crisis, growing populism, or Brexit – to name only a few examples. New borders seem to be erected every day. The way we see it, faith should help people overcome borders. What can we do, specifically, to connect people, cultures and communities?

Beyond this outward-looking aspect, however, the theme also concerns ourselves as Unitarians, Universalists, Free Religious, and Humanists. We claim to practice a free religion and a free faith. Does that mean that as a Unitarian you can believe in anything? Does it mean that anything goes, or are there boundaries after all? And if there are, how do we set them?

These are only some of our theme's aspects that we are going to explore together with two keynote speeches, in services, various workshops and activities, and with a lot of music and fellowship.

Keynote speaker

Prof. Dr.
Manuela Kalsky

Flexible Believers and the Search for a New We

♣ Manuela Kalsky, born 1961 in Salzgitter (Germany), is the Director of the Dominican Study Centre for Theology and Society and of the inter-religious website www.Nieuwwij.nl. Since 2012, she has held the Edward Schillebeeckx chair for Theology and Society at the Free University Amsterdam.

Prof. Kalsky studied theology at the Universities of Marburg and Amsterdam. From 1989-1993 she worked as a research assistant in the field of feminist and systematic theology at the University of Amsterdam. She wrote her PhD thesis on christology from the perspective of women in different cultures. She was a visiting lecturer in Vienna, Fribourg and Hamburg.

In all of western Europe, cultural and religious diversity is leading more and more to forms of hybrid religiosity. Individualism and technological development play a major role. They have also led to changes in religious identity constructions. Keywords include hybrid religiosity, new spirituality and multiple religious belonging. People have moved away from religious institutions and are looking for contemporary forms of their faith.

Prof. Kalsky will speak in German; English translation will be provided.

Rev. Dr. William F. Schulz

The Limits of Dignity: Is Democracy Incompatible with Human Nature?

♣ If Unitarians believe in anything, we believe in democracy and the worth and dignity of every person. But both beliefs are under profound threat today from political extremism, mass migration, racism and economic inequality. Human rights are based upon that assumption of dignity, but some suggest that the whole notion of human rights is obsolete. Might it be that human beings, clannish and easily frightened of strangers as we be, are just incapable of sustaining democracy? And if not, what do Unitarians need to do to defend our core values?

Bill Schulz has served as President of the Unitarian Universalist Association (1985-1993); Executive Director of Amnesty International USA (1994-2006); and President of the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (2007-2016). He is currently a Senior Fellow at the Carr Center for Human Rights Policy at Harvard's Kennedy School of Government and Affiliated Professor of Preaching and Public Ethics at Meadville Lombard Theological School in Chicago.

Rev. Schulz will speak in English. German translation will be provided.

Music

FUSN Chor und Band

♣ Music allows us to cross borders in new and beautiful ways. We are delighted to welcome the choir and band of the First Unitarian Society of Newton (FUSN, near Boston) along with their conductor, Anne Watson Born, to EUT. We will enjoy their musical accompaniment during the services as well as during our “Listen and Join In” musical evening. Members of the FUSN band – along with musicians from the Unitarier and from EUU – will also provide musical entertainment during the talent show.

There will be early morning singing sessions as well as rehearsals for an international EUT choir which will be put together during the retreat. Anne Watson Born has been preparing these activities in concert with the music directors of the Unitarier, Roland Weber, and of EUU, Marcie McGaughey.

Of course, impromptu music sessions are always welcome as well! Please feel free to bring your instruments!

Children, Youth

Youth Camp

♣ The youth camp will be held on the camp-ground of the Ulm Canoeing Club directly next to Edwin-Scharff-Haus on the Danube river (see picture below). BduJ (see RE, p. 14) will provide their traditional tents (called Kote and Jurte, see picture). Sleeping bags and mats need to be brought by the participants.

Breakfast and lunch will be provided by the restaurant of the Ulm Canoeing Club at the camp. Dinner will be together with all EUT participants at the Edwin-Scharff-Haus. The youth camp will be led by experienced youth group leaders. Children ages 8 and up are warmly welcome.

RE Program

♣ The RE program for children (ages 4 and up) and youth will be led by the EUU RE Director in cooperation with the German RE Director (“Jugendleite”) and the Unitarian youth organization (BdUJ: Bund deutsch-unitarischer Jugend). An interesting and varied bilingual program will be offered for children and youth. Of course, there will be lots of fun, e.g. a tour on the Danube river, a city rally, the talent show and many more.

Child Care

♣ For the youngest children (ages 3 and younger) we will offer professional child care. Please register your children before April 15, 2017. There is a small fee of 20,-€ per child for the whole duration of EUT (not during lunch, dinner, or during the evenings).

Welcome Service

♣ EUT brings people together from different countries, continents and organizations. To welcome you on Friday evening after dinner, we will share joys and concerns followed by the traditional “EUU Ice Breaker” for meeting old friends and making new ones! Heidi vom Hagen, Karin Cudd and UU ministers look forward to seeing you there.

Chalice Circles

♣ Small groups are great places to get to know other people and to get to know yourself. Participants may build deep connections with one another, with the group and with the sacred. The groups reflect on and discuss significant life topics. Prior registration is required. Coordination: Antje Paul, Dorcy Erlandson.

Morning Singing

♣ Morning singing has been a traditional part of Unitariertage for many years. Ute Tiede will sing Unitarian song material from Germany with early bird singers.

Morgensingen UT '15 / Morning singing at Unitariertag '15

Open Stage

♣ Open stages and variety shows are fixed points and highlights of each EUU retreat. This will also be the case this time, where we will combine it with the tradition of the “Bunter Abend” of the Unitarier. Enjoy a gala dinner together and appreciate the show of the Unitarian youth (BduJ). An international Unitarian Band will inspire us to dance all night long – celebrating (almost) without borders.

Bunter Abend, Unitariertag 2015

Workshops

♣ “We all support our community.” We would like to organize workshops and activity groups at EUT in keeping with this motto. We kindly ask participants to take an active role. Would you like to propose a workshop or an activity group? Please let us know by April 15, 2017. Proposals are most welcome.

Get involved!

Gunde Hartmann and Terri Michos will finalize the workshop program with the organizing committee. It will be announced before May 1. Registration for all workshops and activity groups will take place at EUT on Friday evening.

We can already announce some workshops and activity groups.

Hans and Sophie Scholl were a brother and sister who were members of the White Rose, a student group in Munich that was active in the non-violent resistance movement in Nazi Germany, especially in distributing flyers against the war and the dictatorship of Adolf Hitler.

The Scholl family came to Ulm in 1932, where the children experienced their youth during the first years of the Nazi government. One of the most famous flyers of the White Rose was produced and hidden in Ulm.

Unitarian Tour to Poland

Directly after EUT, you are welcome to join us on a week-long tour (June 6-12) to the 16th century's Unitarian "heartland" where early religious dissenters first established congregations in the 1560s that openly challenged the doctrine of the trinity, rejected infant baptism, and debated the morality of military service from their pacifist devotion to the life of Jesus. Under the leadership of Fausto Sozzini, they became known as the "Polish brethren" and established some 300 congregations.

The tour will begin in Kraków, where Sozzini was nearly murdered for heresy. We then head north into what was once the Unitarian heartland, where they printed the first great summary of early Unitarian conviction, the Racovian Catechism.

The tour will be led by the Rev. Dr. Jay Atkinson, an experienced UU minister, expert on Poland and research scholar at Starr King School. The trip (June 6-12) will cost about $1000.

For questions and to put your name on the list for possible participation, contact Jay Atkinson: jayatk40@gmail.com
